HALL HAPPENINGS

With Norma Barker

Our afternoon tea dance on 23rd September was a great success, All proceeds of the afternoon, with a marvellous sum of over $2,000 raised, will go to the Queensland branch of the CWA for distribution to needy families. The monies raised included a few very sizeable donations to the cause. We would like to thank all those who assisted us in the venture.

The Hall Committee has planned an 'Indoor Market' for Sunday November 4th at the Redesdale Hall from 9am to 3pm. Come along, find a treasure, or have a Devonshire Tea.

On Sunday 2nd December we have planned a Christmas get-together for the entire community, including children. We have timed it for 5pm with a 6pm meal. BBQ meal will be supplied plus sweets,- we would appreciate it very much if you would bring a salad or nibbles to share. BYO drinks.

Our cookery classes have had to be put on hold until we purchase a new stove, which we hope to do very soon, so maybe in the new year we will start again.

The year is almost at an end, we hope all will have a lovely family Christmas filled with good cheer and with good friends.

Norma.
